

Short-Netiquette

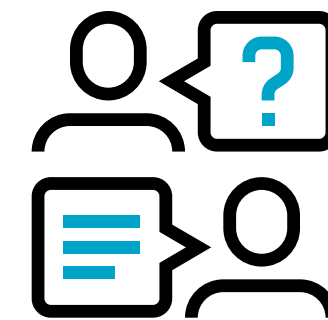

Punctuality

To ensure you don't miss any content, please arrive on time for your event if possible and wait for host approval. If necessary, Zoom rooms will be locked after the meeting has started.

Contribute to discussions

Please indicate your desire to speak by using the "raise your hand" feature or ask your questions via chat. Otherwise, please keep your mic muted. For a more personal exchange, feel free to leave your video on. In a Zoom Webinar, the microphone and camera are disabled by default for viewers.

Openness and respect

We expect all participants to treat each other with respect.

Data protection and copyright

Recording of events or excerpts is prohibited. Recordings may only be made if they have been announced in advance and all attendees have consented to the have consented to the recording and publication.
